

Photographs of Antoine Jacob – UJAC

Preliminary Inventory – May 7, 2008 - CMM

Photographs belonged to Antoine Jacob, class of 1901 alumnus. His family had a chicken farm in Arvada. Materials include cabinet cards and cyanotypes. Due to the extreme light sensitivity of cyanotype photographs, they may not be photocopied or duplicated. Researchers should wear gloves provided in the department to handle materials in the collection.

Box 1

Sophomore Class 1899 (taken in April)

Subs in 1899 (Taken by W.F. Tucker, '01) (2 copies)

Cindy, C.A.C. mail horse (Taken in spring term by W.F. Tucker '01) (cyanotype)

Antoine Jacob & Ned Tanner Fencing (About 1900 - Bradley Photography)

Preparatory Class 1897 (Taken in March)

The five Graces 1899 (Taken by W.F. Tucker '01)

San Juan Club 1898

College Representatives to States Field Day 1899 (cyanotype)

Junior Commercial? (Taken in the fall of 1898 by W.F. Tucker) (cyanotype)

Class of 1899 (Taken by W.F. Tucker) (cyanotype)

Class of 1901 (Taken Dec 23 1899 by W.F. Tucker) (3 copies – two cyanotype, one b&w)

View on college Campus Colorado Agricultural College (cyanotype)

Class of 1902 (Freshman) (Taken in 1899 by W.F. Tucker) (cyanotype)

San Juan Club in 1899 (cyanotype)

3 Different Unidentified Mountain Scenes (cyanotype)

4 Different engineering type drawings by Antoine Jacob and Glynn Stannard (cyanotype)

Large group seated at dining table (possibly the San Juan Club?)

Group photo Class of 1901 (This is a duplicate of 2CL 23-46 in UAPO.)

Print of early CAC campus (rolled)