

COVID-19 Archive Questionnaire

CSU Libraries' Archives & Special Collections is launching a campus-wide project to encourage students, staff, and faculty to document their personal experiences during the coronavirus outbreak and contribute them to the University Archives. All members of the campus community are invited and encouraged to participate.

We'd like to learn more about how you are navigating the pandemic and we appreciate you taking the time to answer this questionnaire. Fill in any or all of the questions, save it and upload it along with any other items you would like to submit. This does not have to be a one-time submission! Feel free to contribute your thoughts and experiences multiple times over the coming months as we continue to move through this historic event.

Steps:

- 1. Complete questionnaire as you are able. Not all questions will apply or need to be answered.
- 2. Save to a local drive or device
- 3. Upload and submit with other materials using the Submission Form (CSU Login Required).

Questions:

1.	Please provide your nam	ie, and if applicable,	your academic	year and area o	of study

- 2. What did you do over Spring Break? Did you have to change plans in any way?
- 3. Tell us how you learned about the University's decisions around COVID-19? What was your reaction?
- 4. Where are you living during the COVID-19 pandemic of 2020?

5.	What is daily life like for you?
6.	Share your experience/s with online learning. Has it been a challenge?
7.	Are you able to work from home?
8.	How has the transition affected you and your family?
9.	How do you keep in touch with friends? Has anything changed?
10.	What else would you like people to know?